

QUALITY OF LIFE

If you are ready to trade in the traffic and fast pace of urban living for a small-town atmosphere that offers all of the business conveniences, look no further than Lander.

Few communities offer Lander's quality of life, which is what attracts most people to the town. The mountain vistas, clean air and water, easy access to recreation, low crime, neighborly residents and access to public lands and national forests make Lander unbeatable. Additionally, Lander continues to attract new business and boasts a blend of strong retail and commercial entrepreneurship.

Nestled amongst the foothills of the Wind River Mountains; Lander is a growing, vibrant community that is proud of all it has to offer its residents and thriving new and existing businesses. If you are looking for recreation, entertainment, relaxation, scenic beauty, business opportunities or just plain fun, Lander offers it all.
