WYOMING SHAKESPEARE FESTIVAL COMPANY

Lander's award-winning Wyoming Shakespeare Festival Company returns to center stage in Lander City Park every Wednesday in July (1st, 8th, 15th, 23rd, and 29th) at 6:00 pm to celebrate their 10th year with William Shakespeare's RICHARD II played by WSFC actors, students, and guest artists.

As a prelude to Shakespeare's HENRY plays, and his later tragic heroes, RICHARD II portrays the overthrow of a monarch. The profound irony lies in the Anointed Ruler, who is subverting public order, while the blasphemous Rebel upholds legality and proves to be a strong leader who ushers in a new era.

RICHARD II is a stupendous play. We recommend coming to all five shows! Bring a picnic, bring the kids, shows are always FREE. Donations are always welcome and appreciated. For more information call 332-2905 or go to www.wyomingshakespeare.com.
