A utility contractor is a person who may construct and install utility lines or facilities of whatever nature, specifically including water, sewer, television and telephone lines or facilities, in the streets and alleys of the City to within two feet of a dwelling or structure.

All licenses, except licenses that have been canceled or revoked, may be renewed from year to year upon request and payment of the required fee. If renewal is requested and the fee paid prior to expiration of the license, the renewal fee shall be the same as the license fee. If a renewal is requested and the required fee paid after June 30 of each year, then the initial license fee will apply. No license will be renewed after June 30 of each year without paying the required fees. The initial year shall be from the time the license is granted to June 30th of the first year. The license fee for the initial year if not a full year shall be prorated on a quarterly rate of the annual fee

Fees. - The fee for licenses issued under this Chapter shall be as follows:

Initial License Fee $150.00

Term of License. - All licenses provided for in this Chapter shall be granted for a period of one year from July 1 to June 30 of each year, except for the initial year if the initial year is only a fraction of the year. The initial year shall be from the time the license is granted to June 30th of the first year. The license fee for the initial year if not a full year shall be prorated on a quarterly rate of the annual fee. A license may be renewed at any time by payment of the license fee and filing with the Building Inspector a copy of license issued by the State of Wyoming which will be current for the period of the renewal license.

Bond Requirement for Contractors. - Every applicant for issuance or renewal of an electrical contractor, plumbing contractor, building contractor, refrigeration repair work, HVAC or Utility contractor license, pursuant to chapters 6, 7, 8, 10 or 11 of this title before such license shall be issued or renewed, shall furnish a bond to the City of Lander in the amount of $10,000. Said bond shall be met by the posting of either a cash bond or a surety bond which shall name to the City of Lander as payee. The bond shall be conditioned that the licensee will comply with the requirements of this title, and the city, or any person damaged by failure of licensee to comply with such requirements, may be in its or his own name and for its or his own benefit upon such bond.
